

The Time To Boost Woodstock Is Now

The Time To Boost
Woodstock Is Now

Now is the time for action. Now is the time for one united drive ahead. Now is the time for all loyal citizens of Woodstock to get together and by united action place this old town on the map. A new day is dawning for Maine. The day of all reforms is here. One of the next few years. The greatest forward movements this state has ever known. Woodstock should be ready to take full advantage of the many opportunities coming this way. The beautiful "Oxford Hills," in the heart of the "Oxford Hills," has many advantages as a summer resort and as a year around place of residence. The town is surrounded by beautiful lakes and ponds with many excellent building sites for summer cottages. When these are advertised and their attractions made known to the outside world, the number of our summer property will increase by leaps and bounds.

Our town proper, (Bryant Pond) is located near the center of the center of the County. It is almost exactly half way between Rumford and Norway. We are the center of trade for a considerable area and as this region develops it will be an opportunity for our town to grow as a trade center.

Without question we have many possibilities along manufacturing lines. Electricity and power are available for things possible that before were out of the question. It is up to us to loyally support our home industries and to encourage new ones, no matter how small they may be.

Farming has always been the leading business or occupation in Woodstock. With the growth of home markets, our farmers will be able to secure a larger share of the consumer's dollar.

All signs of the times would indicate that Portland is destined to become a city with a wide range of business. This would mean the creation of an excellent market for farm produce at our very doors and prosperity for many of our farmers.

Now there are many things needed in this town if we are to grow and prosper as we should. We need a hotel, we need water, we need more sidewalks, more roads and more bridges. We need the right kind. Most of all we need co-operation among our merchants, among our farmers and the co-operation of all citizens in whatever concerns the welfare of the town.

All good citizens want to see Wood stock grow into a better town, a town with the greatest opportunities for the stock for its young people. We want to see our farmers, merchants and all our townspeople prosper and the old town make steady progress.

United action by the people can accomplish this. Every live town in Maine has a chamber of commerce or similar organization of its citizens for the protection of the interests of the community. Woodstock should have the same. Let us have one united organization of Woodstock Boosters, make the dues low enough for everyone can join, and we will be interested and boom Woodstock in real earnest. The opportunities and possibilities are here. It only needs the united action of the people.

H., homestead in Gilead, formerly owned by George A. Burnham. Bounded northerly by Newry Gilead line and land of Wm. C. Chapman, southerly by Androscoggin River; westerly by the Judson Blake parcel. Most of personal property in the dwelling is included.

Greenwood—Charles B. Larrabee to Ernest C. Mason of Greenwood. Parcel with buildings on westerly side of Howe Hill road near Locke's Mills village. Bounded by the Lester Swan parcel, formerly owned by Daniel Cummings and land of E. L. Tebbets Spool Company.
Greenwood—Walter P. Cullinan, Norway, to William O. Eames, Greenwood. Seventy-five acres in Greenwood, bounded west by land of Willard Herrick; south by land of E. W. Penley; east by Mud Pond; north by parcel of Wm. Martin, being all the property conveyed to John P. and Walter P. Cullinan by Timothy L. Heath, in 1901.

Hartford—D. G. Tinkham to Percy C. Gammon, both of Hartford, a part of the E. W. Tinkham farm with buildings. Conveyance includes the part that lies on easterly side of the public highway running through the town, and the field on westerly side, where the buildings are located. Enough cedar is included to shingle the buildings.

Norway—Charles A. Stephens, Norway, to H. B. Wright Realty Corporation of New York. Parcels on Upton Ridge, Norway, early known as the "Lee Grant." Three lots contain approximately 100 acres, as conveyed to grantor under the name of Chas. A. Stevens, by Augustus Noyes, with warranty deed on Oct. 4, 1872. The fourth lot containing about 120 acres, excepting 6 acres on the Norway-Greenwood line sold to Edwin Penley was received from Cyrus M. Buck in 1874. A fifth lot containing about 36 acres, was conveyed by Joseph D. Paine to grantor's father, Simon Stevens, in 1880. Consideration was $10,000.

Paris—Hiram N. Porter to F. Albert and Myrtis W. Starbird, all of Paris, lot on Prospect Ave., and one on Cedar St., in Woodland Park, west of Nichols St., South-Paris village.
Paris—Herbert Cole to Oscar E. Barrows, both of Paris, parcel with buildings near Paris Hill village, on easterly side of highway leading to South Paris. Bounded by land of Edwin A. Daniels, and Paris-Hill Country Club. Same premises were received by deed from Herbert P. Hammond in 1917, and from Eugene L. Jackson the same year.

Paris—Osman K. Clifford to the O. K. Clifford Company, all of Paris, parcel in Paris, bounded northerly by land formerly of the Henry F. Norton farm, easterly by land of the Alvan Rice parcel; westerly by Little Androscoggin River. The parcel is subject to public highway rights and to South Paris village corporation water pipe rights.
Rumford—George G. Cole to Bruce L. Ruff, both of Rumford, lot No. 244 Washington St., Rumford, as received from the Rumford Falls Power Co., in 1924.

Rumford—John Reed, Roxbury, and Richard I. Peterson, Rumford, to Harry Marx, Rumford, lot on easterly side of Congress St., Rumford. One condition is that the shape or height of the present building on the lot shall not be changed. No building shall be maintained there higher than fifteen feet above the street level, excepting for certain conditions regarding a skylight.

PARIS HILL
Mrs. Carlson returned from her vacation in Syracuse, N. Y., on Wednesday. Friends here have received word that Miss Mary Mitchell, a well known summer resident of this village, who with her friend, Miss Harriette Winslow, is now in Arlington, Mass., is recovering from a critical operation and has only recently been able to leave the hospital. We hope she will make good recovery and be with us again in the coming summer.

The Sunshine Club met with Mrs. Rose Swan at Odd Fellows' Hall, South Paris, Jan. 14. There were 43 present, including members, guests, men and children. An unusually nice dinner was served and a good amount of work done. Two puffs were tied. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Marjorie Heald, Jan. 28. There will be some sewing done for an unfortunate, worthy family, to help them along through the winter.

A woman will have the last word if she has to write a postscript to do it.

Back Lame and Achy?
The Advice of This Paris Resident Should Help You to Get Well

Do you suffer nagging backache? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular; breaking your rest? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning. You have backache; rheumatic twinges. You feel weak, tired, all worn-out. Heed this warning. Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Here is a Paris case.

D. L. Benson, Deputy Sheriff, R. F. D., South Paris, says: "I strained my back and it became lame and achy. I had a dull ache across my kidneys that kept up steadily and sharp pains shot through my back at any sudden move. I made a T used Doan's Pills and several boxes, from Stone's Drug Store, rid me of the trouble."

Solution to Last Week's Puzzle

South Paris

Howard Shaw's old fashioned dance at the grange hall, Tuesday evening brought together seventy-four couples. An order of sixteen contra dances was put through without a single jazz step and everybody had one of the best times for the winter. Charles P. Kimball of Norway set in with his fiddle on several numbers, and Shaw's Orchestra just ground off the regular old time stuff. Another dance of this kind will be held there Tuesday evening, Feb. 2. Grand march at 8:30. A track has been cleared on the river near Park Street bridge for trotting. Several steppers get exercise there every day.

Poultry Meetings

Four poultry management meetings will be held in Oxford County during the week of February 1-4 inclusive. The basis of the subject matter of these meetings will be a thorough discussion of the data secured from an analysis of 540 poultry accounts kept on Maine farms for the past three years. Some valuable information relative to the best methods of management of poultry under Maine conditions will be given. Other subjects that will be discussed will be selection and management of breeding stock, hatching and rearing chickens. These meetings will be attended by O. M. Wilbur, Poultry Specialist of the University of Maine Agricultural Extension Service, and E. F. Thomas, county agent. Everyone interested in poultry whether farm bureau members or not is invited to attend. Following is the schedule: Wednesday, Monday evening, Feb. 1, 7:15 P. M., Grange Hall, South Waterford, Tuesday, Feb. 2, 10:00 A. M., Grange Hall, Canton, Wednesday, Feb. 3, 10:30 A. M., Community Room, High School, Brownfield, Thursday, Feb. 4, 10:30 A. M., Town Hall, Fryeburg. Those attending the Brownfield and Canton meetings will bring their lunch. Dinner will be served at Waterford.

"Mellie-isms"

Vivian Akers Witnessed Mellie's Norway Night

Vivian Akers, the Norway artist who superintended the printing of the program supplement of Norway night at the Hippodrome, was leader of a theatre party there Thursday evening.

The manager gave Mr. Akers a box with six seats and two others elsewhere. Rounding up a party of Norway boosters he secured Miss Mildred Seitz, Lawrence Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ormsbee (summer guests at Cedarbrook, and Summit Spring Hotel) Miss Elizabeth Ferguson and Mrs. E. J. Grassmann of Elizabeth, N. J. (daughter of Richard Clement). The show went great and the souvenirs were appreciated.

After the show they met Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Chapman of Norway and all hands went back stage to meet Mellie and Gram.

Vivian says the Maine fiddler is closely guarded at the hotel and the secretary, Miss Trained, is taking care of the Mellie and Gram. Mellie, Nate and Cherry have been busy making Victor records, while Mellie is frequently called upon for publicity stunts as the secretary permits.

On one visit to the rooms Vivian discovered the family at supper. Nate was in his shirt sleeves and enjoying home comforts. All were well and full of ambition. Mellie said they were just back from Carl Fischer's, the music publisher's and that Fischer had given Nate a fine cello.

Vivian went to Chicago this week where he expects to remain for a time.

The Same Mellie and Gram

Roger Hutchins attends the Hippodrome the second time to see Mellie and Gram; this is what he has to say:

"I saw the show again last night, Jan. 18, at the Hippodrome, and as a fair-minded observer, Mellie and Gram received the same wholehearted applause of the audience which picturesquely made it a promise to inquire of interested parties and in every instance they have had a favorable report on Mellie's act. New York people enjoy something that is original and a little different. To those of us who are natives of Maine and all the more of Oxford County, it has taken us back to the land of the pine, beautiful streams, picturesque mountains and also the lakes where fish really bite and canoes and motor boats glide. So many acts on the stage today are full up of the false and fancy stuff. But Mellie's is different. He is the same Mellie that you would meet in his home town.

No white collar stuff, no evening dress, but just Mellie himself appearing perfectly natural. That's what took with the people. I sat beside a man from the south and he just warmed up and applauded heartily. He told me that the south they still have and enjoy the old time dances. Those that participated on the stage looked like they had just come from home and went into the city to see the show. I have no doubt that they would at a Harvest supper dance right in their own home town.

Mellie has been blessed with unlimited publicity, but he is still Mellie Dunham and the general public are glad of his opportunity. The papers have published various phases of Mellie's circumstances with his career and there covering his home life. He has had responsibilities in raising a large family. That in itself entitles Mellie and Gram to all the good things that have come to them in life. What could be more noble than to raise to manhood or womanhood a family of youngsters into this wonderful generation. So every seat that is occupied at the Hip during Mellie's stay in town means a cheerful contribution in assisting Mellie and Gram to carry out their life work. Here's hoping that they think enough to come around to see us every thing their hearts could desire for the rest of their lives. It's all coming from a good natured public that enjoys clean, wholesome entertainment and that's what Mellie and Gram are giving them. Without fear or favor they are loved and praised from all sides."

Invited to Home Week Celebration

John Y. Beede of Meredith, N. H. writes: "By the way why can't you (Sanborn) bring Mellie Dunham and Gram up here for Old Home Day next summer? I notice you are in pretty close touch with them and no doubt they will get tired of 'Storming the Country' by that time. We are thinking of having a two days' celebration this year and devote one day to a picnic party at the Center. Sandwich does that way and it's a big success."

This appeals to Sanborn as this is his old home town: Meredith and Meredith Center, N. H.

Mellie is Growing Way-Wise

Mellie Dunham writing for a New York paper has this to say:

"I'm just an old fiddler, but I'm having the time of my life. When one starts on a stage career at seventy-two he finds he has missed a lot.

Theatrical folks have interested me for a long time. I've always read about them in the Norway and Portland (Me.) papers and I know lots about the Barry-mores, Al Johnson and their set.

Since I went into Keith-Albee vaudeville the actors have been awful nice to me and I want to be friends with them all. The thing I like best about them is their good nature. They're always grinning and cracking jokes.

Lots of them joke with me and I always answer them back. I reckon I hold up my end when it comes to funny-isms.

I really don't see why people should pay good money to go to the Hippodrome and hear me fiddle. However, the management says to hush my noise when I talk like that and as my check comes weekly regular, I guess it's all hunky-dory.

Gram—that's my wife—says she bets the people come to see if I die on the stage fiddling some night.

That's silly, but for goodness sakes, don't tell her I said so."

Mellie and Gram Entertained Young People

The last day, Saturday, at the Hippodrome was a busy one. The "Jill Jackson's" and their friends were guests of the management and they were introduced to Mellie and Gram.

The club is a group of young people organized by the one of New York's evening newspapers. They hold contests and the winners in one contest recently finished have the pleasure of meeting the Maine couple for a good long chat.

This was a great honor for the young people, and all enjoyed the stage show. Probably none were more pleased than Mellie and Gram. They do love young people.

Mellie Has Started Something in Brooklyn

Brooklyn is to have its official old-time fiddler. The Chamber of Commerce is behind a contest to be staged at the Albee theatre, Feb. 1, to find "Mellie's" duplicate or superior in that burrough or on Long Island.

In order to make the contest available to all old-time Brooklynites, scouts will be sent forth to call the attention of candidates to the competition and a silver loving cup will be given to the winner by "Mellie," who has won national fame since his discovery by Henry Ford.

"Mellie is really responsible for the search for Brooklyn's most perfect old-time fiddler. In an interview with one of the officials of the chamber he suggested that Brooklyn should have an annual contest with the coveted cup and the honor which will go to its holder as an inducement. He also recommended that the fiddling champion be used at all public and civic functions.

"Mellie" offered to donate the cup and to present it to the winner when he appears at the Albee Theatre during the week after the contest and if the winner is an old-timer who has old-time food at home, "Mellie" will gladly accept an invitation to spend a dinner hour with him.

The New York Star, official vaudeville magazine, has this to say about the Maine fiddler at the Hippodrome: "Mellie Dunham, Fords Versatile Fiddler, enlivens a program composed of versatile vaudevillians with old fashioned barn dance music and proves himself to be an entertainer qualified to mingle with the best. Mellie is a real showman and discloses his hand in the way he conducts his offering." In the same paper is a reproduction of "Mellie" and "Gram" perched on a front seat of an old fashioned sleigh with Mellie drawing the reins over the back of a high-stepper.

PROFIT--or Loss

Are you giving your fruit trees a fair show? Are you helping them to produce the A grade fruit?

The profit in orcharding means helping the trees to produce the A grade and reducing the culls to a minimum. Culls and cider apples represent the lost profit.

It is an acknowledged fact that one cannot raise good clean apples in this locality without protecting the fruit from insect and fungus disease.

We are now making up our orders for spring shipment. Drop in and let us help you plan an orchard schedule.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND MEN

LESSON TEXT—John 6:1-14; 32-37.
GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst.—John 6:35.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Feeds Many Hungry People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Is Helped by a Boy.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Feeds a Hungry Crowd.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Why People Follow Jesus.

I. Jesus' Compassion for the Multitude (vv. 1-4, Cf. Matt. 14:13).

The sight of a crowd always excited the Lord's sympathy. He knew that they were as sheep without a shepherd (Mark 6:34). They were going forth with no one to care for them. Besides, they were so ignorant that they had no appreciation of Him. Added to this was their physical hunger. This condition aroused the Savior's pity.

This is true of the multitude today. Sin had so thoroughly blinded them that they are not conscious of their lost condition.

II. Jesus' Conference With the Disciples Touching the People's Need (vv. 5-9).

This was not done for His benefit, for He knew what He would do (v. 6). His object may be summed up as follows:

1. To Teach Them Their Sense of Obligation to the Multitude.

We are workers together with God (II Cor. 6:1).

2. To Teach Them Their True Helplessness in the Face of Such Great Needs.

The loaves and fishes were as nothing in the presence of five thousand men, besides women and children. Well might Andrew exclaim, "What are these among so many?" We may plant and water, but the increase entirely comes from God.

3. To Teach Them That Their Sufficiency Is From the Lord.

Without Him we can do nothing (John 15:1-5). Christians can no more carry on the Lord's work of themselves than the branch can bear fruit without the vine. The branch supplies the life and strength for the production of fruit. Philip's arithmetic was of no use in the face of such need. Jesus has all power, nothing is too hard for Him.

III. The Lord's Method of Accomplishing His Work (vv. 10-13).

Observe here the orderliness of Christ's work. He paused to give thanks for the scant supply, teaching us that we should always bring our abilities and gifts to God that He might bless them to His use.

4. The Lord's Part Was to Bless and Break the Bread, Even to Create the Needed Supply.

The disciples could not perform this part. The same kind of bread was provided for all, rich and poor, young and old, women and children.

5. The Disciples' Part Was to Distribute That Which He Had Passed and Consecrated.

This is true of the Christian worker today. Our part is to take from the hands of the Lord that which He has blessed and consecrated, and distribute it among the starving multitudes. We are not responsible for the supply, but are responsible for its distribution to all those who are hungry and perishing for the Bread of Life.

6. The People's Part Was to Sit Down and Eat.

They had no part in the provision, neither in its distribution, but only to take from the hands of the disciples and eat that which the Lord had provided. This is exactly our situation. The people are responsible for the taking and eating of the Bread of Life; faith with obedience is their part. This is an illustration of the part obedience plays in our salvation.

IV. The Effect of This Miracle (vv. 14).

The people recognized Him at once as the prophet who should come. They believed Him for His works' sake.

5. Jesus, the Bread of Life (vv. 32-37).

1. What Bread Is to the Body, Christ Is to the Soul.

Bread is a staple food. It is necessary for the body. One never tires of it. Even so is it with Christ.

2. How to Obtain This Bread.

It is by coming to Christ and believing on Him.

3. The Blessed Issue of Taking This Bread.

The one who eats this bread shall never hunger, nor thirst. Hungry and thirst return after partaking of natural bread and water—not so with those who have partaken of Christ.

Ardent Prayer

As well might we expect vegetation to spring from the earth without the sunshine and the dew, as the Christian to unfold his grace and advance in his course without patient, persevering, ardent prayer.—J. Abbott.

Sin's Ending

There is more bitterness in sin's ending than there ever was sweetness in its acting. If you see nothing but good in its commission, you will suffer only woe in its conclusion.
